Presidents Notes

Paul Juszczuk, President

Dear friend:

Whoever said "No Girls Allowed"? They must be still living in another century. This year's BUFF Women's Events are packed with adventure! These are great outings. We're always looking to welcome new members of all kinds – from beginners to seasoned anglers.

Regardless of ability level, ladies who participate in Buckeye United Fly Fishers Women's Events find learning opportunities both on the stream and off the stream. The only requirement to join is an interest in fly fishing. Our club programs cover a wide range of topics – from fly fishing techniques to stream tactics to fly tying. In addition to casting clinics, stream-side seminars and outings, our ladies enjoy exclusive social gatherings throughout the year. In that way, our ladies are sure to make many new friends.

The club offers a variety of fishing trips and outings which provide great opportunities for everyone. Bluegills, trout and pike don't care if you are a man or a woman. Half-day and all-day local outings as well as overnight Women's trips are scheduled throughout the year. Membership information is available online, as well as via our club program and event calendar.

Cordially,

Paul Juszczuk, President

July Presentation & Speaker

Alex Bell

“Fishing the Western NC Trout Trail & Tuckasegee River Delayed Harvest Water”

Mike Rubush, Program Co-Chair

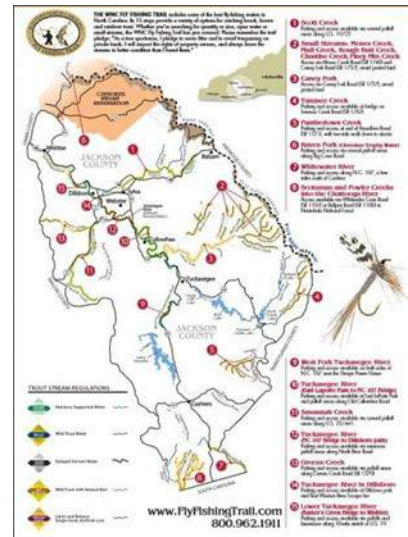

Program Description

Alex’s background in teaching and education have made him a great fly fishing instructor and guide. Alex is the owner of AB Guide service out of Sylva, North Carolina.

Alex will be speaking about the Western North Carolina Fly Fishing Trail and fishing the Tuckasegee River’s Delayed harvest waters. In 2009, the Jackson County Tourism Authority asked Alex to help develop the trout trail. He readily agreed to the project and served as co-creator of the trail. The initiative sought to connect more anglers with the waters Alex loves.

The trail connects anglers with 15 prime fishing locations across Jackson County, and is the first fly fishing trail in the United States.

Many of our BUFF members have learned to effectively fish the Tuckasegee (Tuck) with Alex at their side.

TRIPS

The Kayak day trip August 12th will be easier than you might think. This trip will hit some of the best fishing holes on the White Water River! If all else fails, we pull over and fish a few spots from shore.

Our September 9th trip is planned as an all-day wading trip. Please come even if you can only make half a day, as we will break for lunch at the park nearby. We caught several nice fish on Twin Creek last year.
